 - Taximeter will be in every Taxi. You don't need to negotiate.
 - In morning and late afternoon taxis are not faster than public transport
- Bicycle
 - Bicycles are a great opportunity to discover downtown Hamburg. Rental stations can be found at the main points of interest.
 - Cycling from the hotel to downtown Hamburg will take you through some interesting parts of Hamburg. The distance will be at least 10 miles, you will need good directions.
- Walking
 - Walking recommended in the city center and main harbour area.
 - You may explore the neighborhood surrounding the hotel.

How to get around in Hamburg

- Drive yourself
 - Our advice is to get familiar with German regulations in advance
 - Useful link: <http://www.gettingaroundgermany.info/autobahn.shtml>
 - The hotel provides sufficient parking space
 - To park in the City Center is possible, but compared to public transportation you will not save time (traffic jam, finding parking spaces)

"End of all restrictions" sign, indicating the end of all speed limit and passing restrictions

Useful Information

- Emergency calls:
 - Fire: 112
 - Police: 110
- Phone numbers for local help and support are available at Reception of Privathotel Lindtner
- In general, if you are happy with a service (e.g. restaurant, taxi), you can add 10 % – 15 % of tip on top of the total price
- Prices includes all taxes, always and everywhere
- Amount of restaurants in the area of Privathotel Lindtner is limited . Therefore, we have organized Buffet / Menu dinner in the hotel for every evening. This will increase also networking possibility.

Plan your Events

- There are plenty of activities possible in Hamburg. Highlights are captured in this document. Our recommendation that you decide what you would like to see and visit
→ see also following pages
- Additional sightseeing options and ideas can be found:
<http://www.hamburg-citytours.de/en/>
- Our local event coordinator and the host chapter committee is happy to support you before, during and after the conference.

Registration for Events

- Please select during registration process the events you want to participate. It helps us to predict the amount of people for the organization.
- Prices shown for the events are divided between:
 - price to be paid at time of registration
